

TOWN&COUNTRY

The Best Champagne Bottles to Pop This New Years

Whether you're buying by the case or splashing out for a solo celebration, these are the champagnes you should pour.

While we may not know what's in store for 2023, there's at least one New Years Eve tradition you can always count on—champagne. Whether you're sending the year off with a glamorous all-night bash or watching the ball drop from home with a small group or special someone, there's a perfect bottle to pop for every NYE celebration, and we've made those bottles even easier to find. No matter who you choose to ring in 2023, these are the best champagnes for New Years Eve.

Brut Majeur Ay Champagne

$45 AT VIVINO

If you've got champagne tastes on a sparkling wine budget, get the most bang for your New Years buck with this brut bottle. The juice is brisk, with a complex fruit and toasted brioche palate that you'd expect to find on a bottle several times its price—in fact, it's a sister brand of Champagne Bollinger.

Bollinger

Champagne Bollinger La Grande Année 2012

$265 AT RESERVE BAR

Curling up for a cozy NYE in? Let the notes of baking spices and candied citrus in this vintage cuvée help you finish off the most festive season of the year in style.